pany, who has been absent for several ays, is reported better. The periodical yellow fever furor has started on its annual preregrination, emanating as usual from the magnificent brain matter held in special reserve at the Chicago board of trade. Last year the minimum loss to the packing interests from this causeless scare was estimated as 120,00,000. This bugaboo is every year used by the short sellers of provisions as a club to pound down the market and usually it has the desired effect. As a matter of fact, more people died during the season in the cities of Chicago and New York than died in the south from yellow fever. In fact, the epidemic last ummer was more a billous fever than the real yellow article. This perennial rumor is usually manufactured from the

The bears by that time were forced to seek other material for their campaign. The persistent weakness of Manhattan all day on reports of decreased earnings was a factor in their favor. Prices of stocks hardened very perceptibly during the middle portion of the day after the fears of tight money had somewhat subsided. The bulls took hold of the low-priced railroad stocks and bid up Northern Pacific and Union Pacific over a point. The bears' final raid in the last hour was centered on Louisville and Nashville, in connection with the statement of earnings for the first week in August showing a decrease of over $13,000. There was a "private" telegram from Chicago in circulation reporting yellow fever in exas and Alabama. Louisville and Nashville dropped two points under this onslaught. Spantards wind submit to peace terms and it appears he intended going over into said down by our administration and more the Seminole country to look after some cattle. He had been drinking in the afternoon, but it appears he was able to navigate. Before departing from town he borrowed a six-shooter from Homer Knight, and started in the direction of the Seminole country, telling Knight he was going to look after his cattle. A few moments later a pistol shot was heard in the direction Beeson had ridden. About report of the gun was heard, young Davis run up to the picnic grounds and informed Deputy Sheriff J. P. Wheeler that some drunken Seminels Indian was threatening to shoot through his father's house and requested the officer to go up to the house and stop him. The officer, in company win another gentleman, hurried over us the bouse and on their way met a borse down the road. Upon approaching the where they were. Davis then informed them that he thought the man was down the road a short distance, and upon invertigation the man was found lying in the road with a gun in one hand but apparently unconscious. His gun was taken out of his hand and the officer put handcuffs on him. When a thorough examination was made it was discovered that the man was John Beesen and that his face and shirt bosom were bloody. Beeson 5 was then taken back to Earlbern and a 2% physician summoned who dressed his wound. The next morning Beason had rallied and talked rationally. He could not recall anything that had happened the pressous night, and informed Mr. Knight that he did not remember anything after he had left him after receiving his gun-Mr. Beeson was taken home the next morning after receiving the injury, and gradually grew werse until his weath occurred.

> A warrant was sworn out charging F. I. Davis with the crime of murder son, and Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday were consumed in Justice Clinkecale's court in this city in taking the evidence in his preliminary examination.

The evidence produced did not connect Davis in any manner with the mysterious blow Reeson received. It was proven that Beeson's brain was addled when he was first discovered at Davis' gate from his actions and language. From the evidence it seems that Beeson was hurt before he reached the house, or his horse in throw ing his head hit him after he arrived at Outs-Active; somewhat lower; No. 2 the guts.
